Corporate Profile

Agile Entertainment Inc.

Based in Montreal ,Canada, Agile Entertainment is comprised of two divisions, Agile Sound and Total Casting. Agile Entertainment Inc was founded by industry veterans Gregg Jonasson and Helene Rouse a decade ago. Agile Entertainment has an extensive track record and is recognized for its consistent quality of service.

With offices and studios in both Montreal and Toronto, Agile Entertainment provides project management, production, consultation and creative services for small, medium, and large scale projects in the Film, Television, Animation and Video Game industries, with a specialization in multilingual voice production and localization.

Our understanding of all media outlets and its audience's expectations makes a valuable asset to the production of any multimedia project. Our biggest strength is our flexibility and the capability to manage and scale budgets of low-medium and big productions without ever compromising the quality of the project or its timely delivery.
